

ST. JOHNSBURY
Local News

Mrs. Anna Spencer Frost of Boston played "Galatia" in a production of "Pygmalion and Galatia" given before an audience of managers, authors, sculptors and artists in Boston and is now doing "Eliza in Comedy." Mrs. Frost is also assisting in the Mammoth Pageant, "The Highway of Civilization," to be given at Mechanics Building on May 19th.

The Wide Awake Grange met Saturday evening and initiated five candidates in the third and fourth degrees. "The Dairy Situation" was the subject of the evening and "How Prices Should be Regulated." The speakers were worthy Master Knowlton and Past Master E. H. Hallett. The program included a recitation by Francis Lewis after which supper was served.

Rev. Chauncey A. Adams of Danville was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Omar Duval leave today on a Boston trip.

Miss Frances Atkinson of Newbury was a visitor to St. Johnsbury Thursday.

Bernie Gray of Colebrook, N. H., is the guest of his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Greenwood.

Mrs. C. B. Rathbun has returned from New York City where she attended the mid-summer millinery opening.

Mrs. Murdo Smith and children leave next Tuesday for Detroit, Mich., where Mr. Smith has been the past winter. They are to make their home there.

Miss Lydia Fournier still remains very ill with muscular rheumatism. S. C. Harding of Concord, N. H., Charles Akin of Melrose Falls and John McLellan of Barton were business visitors here Thursday.

Joseph Walker has been in Island Pond this week on business.

Captain E. F. Griswold of East St. Johnsbury called on old friends here Friday.

E. T. Ide and Miss Mary Ide who have been in Florida this winter are now in Jacksonville, Alabama, with

L. D. Bass who has spent the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Edward Cleary left Friday for Stratford, where he will remain during the summer.

M. M. Counsell has returned from a business trip to Samersworth, N. H. Miss Virginia Berry of Newport is the guest of Miss Gladys Bigelow and other friends here.

Mrs. Leon Baxter and two children left Friday for a three weeks' visit in New Hampshire and Massachusetts. Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hale of Walden visited their daughter, Mrs. George Morchouse, Thursday on their way to Springfield, Mass., to see their son, Clyde Hale.

M. A. Weiner has purchased a new Chevrolet touring car of the Morrill garage.

Miss Clarence Bennett visited her sister, Mrs. Edward Somers in Barnet Friday.

Ralph Sherry has sold his property on Pleasant street to G. M. Lowrey of the Lowrey grocery.

Mrs. Marion L. Spence of Woodstock visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smythe Thursday.

Mrs. Lydia Estabrook is confined to the house by illness. Her sister, Mrs. Charles West is gaining from her illness.

H. E. Gray of Waterbury is a business visitor in town.

Miss Phillips was in Lowell, Mass. Friday on business.

Mrs. Preston Skinner of Orleans who has been here visiting Mrs. H. A. Bryant returned home Friday.

Frank E. Rice has resigned his position in Burlington and has returned to St. Johnsbury where he has a position.

Rev. P. A. Smith of Groton is a business visitor in St. Johnsbury today.

C. E. Kirk has sold the Dennis Cassidy house on Railroad street to Peter on two tenement house on Cliff street to George Kingsbury.

Mr. Ide's son, George P. Ide, Gov. Henry C. Ide is also in Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. Arthur F. Stone received word of the death early Friday morning of her brother, William A. Lincoln, at Springfield, Mass., and leaves Saturday morning to attend his funeral that afternoon.

Mr. Lincoln was president of the Springfield Safe Deposit and Trust Company and generally recognized as one of the leading bankers of western Massachusetts.

Friends of Mrs. E. C. Potter of Main Street will be pained to learn that she remains critically ill, her condition steadily growing weaker. Her sister, Mrs. Warren Wilson of Stoneham, Mass., is with her.

There will be no food sale Saturday afternoon at the North church as announced.

James F. Aldrich has gone to Independence, Kan., to visit his father, Dr. W. J. Aldrich.

Walter J. Ingram is confined to his home on Orient street by injuries received on the train.

The New York Fruit store has handsomely renovated the interior of its place of business. New paint and paper, show cases, hardwood floors, etc., make a distinct addition to the place. A wholesale room has been fitted up and a show case will be added.

Bert Constantine has accepted a position at the Wright garage.

Mrs. Luther Jewett and Miss Eleanor Bowman have returned from a trip to Lansing, Michigan. Her father, Edwin Bowman returned with them.

Mrs. Coburn, mother of G. W. Coburn, is very ill at the home of her son on Pine Street.

Miss Gertrude S. Menut is assisting in the Caledonian-Record office during the absence of the editor and publisher, Herbert A. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Danforth of Danville who have been visiting here went to Littleton, N. H., Thursday to visit their daughter, Miss Christine Danforth, who is training in the Littleton hospital.

F. B. Jacques left Thursday for Windsor on business.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Bean returned Thursday morning from St. Petersburg, Fla., where they have spent the winter. On the homeward journey they stopped a week in Washington and a few days in Baltimore and were much inconvenienced in securing Pullman reservations by the strike.

Mr. Bean brought home a couple of chameleons as a souvenir of his winter's trip.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Grenfell are the guests of Dr. John M. Allen during their brief stay in St. Johnsbury.

C. E. Kirk has bought the house on Summer street owned by the late Mrs. Abby McCarthy. Mr. Kirk also bought the Dr. W. J. Aldrich house, 1 Cherry street and has sold it to Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Martin, who will occupy it.

William J. Barry of Hartford, Conn., who has been calling on his two sisters, Mrs. Ernest Maynard and Miss Olive Barry, has returned home.

John H. Carpenter has returned to his home in Boston after being cordially greeted here by his old friends. During his short stay in St. Johnsbury he leased one of his houses on Clinton avenue to its present occupant, Dr. C. M. Richmond.

Gov. Clement has appointed Frank H. Brooks one of the six delegates from Vermont to attend the conference of library trustees at the Boston public library April 22. The enlarged program of the American Library association will be considered at the conference.

Edward Young of Harvard College is spending the week with his parents, Supt. and Mrs. W. H. Young.

Amos W. Scott has returned from a trip to Colebrook, N. H., where he was called in regard to the sale of the Hampshire Inn property.

Mrs. W. P. Smith who recently sold her home to Dr. R. H. Burke, has rented the apartment in the H. C. Boynton house occupied by Dr. Burke's family.

Miss Anna Langlois of Springfield, Mass., who came here Saturday to visit friends, has taken a position in the Fairbanks office.

The Woman's Home Missionary society will have a food sale at the South church, Friday at 3 p. m.

Ralph Provencal has returned from Boston where he has been studying the player piano.

Mrs. George Roberts, mother of Mrs. Philip Fletcher, died Wednesday morning at her home in Shelburne. Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher are in Shelburne.

Mrs. D. D. Patterson who has spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Deland Williams of Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., and with Judge and Mrs. W. P. Stafford in Washington, D. C., returns to St. Johnsbury this week preparatory to vacating her home on Main Street sold to Dr. W. B. Fitch.

Miss Ellie B. Higgins is the guest this week of Miss Bertha Lee of East St. Johnsbury.

The condition of Miss Eunice May, who has been ill at Brightlook for a number of weeks, is improving.

Mrs. George Blakeley has returned from Cady's Falls.

A Ford roadster driven by C. W. Steele attempted an acrobatic stunt in front of the office of the Daily Caledonian Thursday noon, and a rear wheel was broken. The car skidded, climbed to the pavement and narrowly escaped turning over.

A. L. Bailey is attending the Methodist conference in Springfield, Vt., as a lay delegate from Grace Methodist church.

Miss Etta Newell of Hanover, N. H., is visiting her sister Mrs. Robert MacInnon.

Negotiations are being made for the transfer of the I. G. Jones property at 3 Jones street, owned by A. W. Parker of Wheelock to E. H. Hallett. Mr. Hallett is to exchange his farm for the property.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Woodbury reached home Saturday morning from a winter in Orlando, Florida.

W. B. C. Stieckey, Esq., the well-known Rutland lawyer, was here Friday to offer for probate the will of the late Theo. N. Vail.

Among Friday's visitors to St. Johnsbury were three well known attorneys, Fred G. Fleetwood of Morrisville, Roger W. Hubbard of Hyde Park and Horace F. Graham of Craftsbury.

Editor Wallace H. Gilpin of the Barton Monitor was a business visitor to St. Johnsbury Saturday.

Robert L. Stone, who has been with the United Drug Company in Boston, is home for Sunday and begins next week to work for the Vermont forestry department in their forest reservations.

Miss Edith L. Stone, who has been with the Quartermaster's Corps in the supply department at Boston and Washington during the war, has resigned her position and returned to her St. Johnsbury home Saturday.

Mrs. Herbert Deland Williams of Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., is here attending to the packing and removing of the household effects from the D. D. Patterson house which has been sold to Dr. W. B. Fitch. Mrs. Patterson expected to come to St. Johnsbury the past week but was unable to take the trip until later. She is with her nephew and niece, Judge and Mrs. Wendell P. Stafford in Washington, D. C.

Grace Unity Club will serve a supper on Thursday evening at 6 o'clock in the church dining room.

Miss Ida L. Kahlo, who has been spending a short time with friends in town, has returned to her duties as hostess of the Methodist Guest House at Camp Dix, N. J.

Mrs. H. A. Lougee is in Windsor called there by the illness of Mr. Lougee.

The mission prayer meeting will be held this evening at the home of Merrill Johnson at 57 Summer street.

Mrs. Arthur F. Stone returned Tuesday from Springfield, Mass., where she was called by the death of her brother, William A. Lincoln.

The engagement is announced of Miss Annie V. Peck of New York to Philip Hill of New York, a member of the law firm of Gregg, Baldwin & Baldwin Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Goodrich have returned from their trip to the Pacific coast where they spent a most enjoyable winter and met many of their old friends. On their eastbound trip they stopped at Camp Dodge, Ia., to visit their son-in-law, Capt. Percy B. Hartwell.

Miss Beulah Eastman left Monday night for Newark, N. J., where she has gone to visit her brother, Irving Eastman.

John M. Allen and L. N. Smythe have gone to Philadelphia on a business trip.

Mrs. Henry W. Battles is visiting her daughter in Springfield, Mass. Dick King is home from a visit with his son, Ben. King, in North Hatley. Mr. and Mrs. Ashley Goss of West Danville visited here Monday.

Miss Iva Finley has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Rosa Steele at Danville.

Mrs. W. B. Darling is visiting friends in Canton.

"The Runaways," in a new dress and almost an entirely new setting was given in Burlington Thursday night by Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Philbrook, who put the play on here some time ago. One of the popular numbers was "Haidée." Mr. Philbrook's own composition. It was illustrated by six girls, headed by Miss Jane

Howe, daughter of Judge H. B. Howe.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin A. Shayton of Morrisville spent Sunday at the St. Johnsbury House enroute to Lakeport, N. H. Mr. Shayton is the superintendent of Morrisville's famous municipal electric light plant.

Benjamin Tilton is confined to the house with the mumps.

Robert Bennett, who underwent an operation at Brightlook Hospital Friday, is gaining. Miss Maud Bennett came from Orleans to take care of her father at the hospital.

Rev. George A. Martin returned from Springfield Monday.

Mrs. John Page of Whitefield is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brown.

Mrs. Robert Lane is visiting friends in Newport.

Merl Calkins of Westmore spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Fred Marshall.

Albert Judd has resumed his work at the St. Johnsbury House after an enforced vacation by several months' illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gilman and daughter, Miss Arlene Gilman, are visiting in New Boston, N. H.

Paul Gilman spent Sunday in St. Johnsbury Center visiting friends.

Joseph Hopkins is in Burlington on business.

Samuel Beusiere is out again after a three weeks' illness.

Miss Sadie LeMear spent the week end at her home in Lyndonville.

Louis Bennett of Walden spent the week end here with his brother, Ben. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. George I. Green leave for Claremont, N. H., Tuesday to spend the summer.

Mrs. Edna Emmons of Springfield is the guest of Miss Hazel E. Powers.

Mrs. Wilkins went to Athol, Mass., Saturday to visit her husband, who is working there.

Mrs. Carl Morris returned Friday from Montpelier where she visited the past week.

Miss Helen Powers spent Sunday at her home in Fitzdale.

Ernest Barbieri has returned from Boston and drove home a new Buick roadster.

Alexander Healey of Springfield is visiting in town a few days.

Mrs. C. B. Albee of Newport is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Lowell.

Miss Mildred Ferris and Charles Mosher were married Saturday night at the Baptist parsonage by the Rev. A. S. Woodworth.

George C. Cary, who has been in New York on business, returns today.

Miss Margaret Ling is back at the Cross bakery after an enforced vacation by illness.

Mrs. Florence Palmer who has been spending the winter in Lancaster has been spending a few days in town.

Mrs. Metcalf and daughter, Charlie of Barton, were week end guests of Mrs. L. F. Smith.

Jack Kandler and John Smith spent Sunday in Lyndonville.

Representative Frank W. Hastings of Glover, a former resident of St. Johnsbury, was here Saturday on his way to Waterford to visit his brother, S. J. Hastings.

The force of painters and paper-hangers from the Stafford & Stevens shop have returned from Bath, Me., where they were busily employed on 63 houses and 109 tenements of one of the big shipbuilding concerns. During their stay there they saw two destroyers launched.

Henry H. Salls of Burlington has closed the contract for the roofing on the plant of the Cay Maple Sugar Company. Mr. Salls has just completed a similar job in Burlington for the Vermont Chocolate Company.

Paul J. McSweeney, youngest son of Dr. and Mrs. R. M. McSweeney, enlisted in the U. S. Navy, April 20th, as a musician. He passed his last examination at Manchester, N. H., and is now stationed in Newport, R. I. His mother accompanied him as far as Burlington, returning Thursday.

Miss Mabel Cobb of Danville is visiting at the home of Dr. R. M. McSweeney.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Carpenter of Northampton, Mass., are guests of Mrs. Mabel H. Carpenter.

Mrs. Allen Knight, Jr., left Saturday for Amherst, Mass., to join her husband.

Ernest L. Rand of Burlington, the "Y" secretary in Russia during the reign of a soviet government, will address the American Legion members at a smoker at Grand Army hall tonight.

David E. Porter, David S. Conant, J. Rolf Seales and James B. Campbell are in Guildhall attending the opening of Essex county court.

Miss Mary J. Nelson spent Sunday at her home here from St. Albans, where she is attending Franklin county court.

Miss Margaret and Virginia Thomas, who have been visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams at Danville, have returned home.

Mrs. Rose Steele of Danville visited her brother, John B. Finley, here Monday.

Dr. J. M. Allen is spending the week in Philadelphia and New York attending the surgical clinics of those two cities. L. N. Smythe is accompanying him and will explain the technicalities of the baseball game on some afternoons while absent.

Several of the doctors and their wives gave Dr. R. H. Burke a little luncheon at the Elks home Sunday evening in honor of the 33rd birthday anniversary of Dr. Burke. The doctor received some substantial gifts which were presented by Drs. Milmore and Cranston.

Dr. C. A. Cranston returned from a

Dr. Milmore was called to Passumpsic Monday on professional business, making the trip by automobile. He reports the roads as very good.

Mrs. George Lapoint is visiting at her home in Boston.

Miss Agnes Harvey and Miss Agnes Walbridge of the Keene Normal school spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Walbridge.

Edward Tremblay is home from the St. Johnsbury Hospital where he has been the past week.

Miss Elva Walbridge returned to Plymouth Normal school Monday after spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Walbridge.

Raymond Emmons of Windsor spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emmons.

Visit to Montreal Sunday morning is much improved in health. He resumed work Monday morning.

Carroll Chase and Mrs. Blanche Chase of Melrose Falls, Blanche Steele of Ryegate visited at C. B. Chase's Tuesday.

Mrs. James Kendrick of West Burke visited her brother, F. C. Sheburne, Tuesday.

Mrs. George S. Hickey is home from a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Hickey at Jefferson, N. H.

H. A. Powers is in Burlington attending the Woolworth convention.

Truman Power is ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Power.

Fred S. Harriman spent Tuesday in Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Flint, who have spent the winter in Orlando, Florida, returned home the first of the week.

H. M. Bronson of Concord, N. H., is here on business.

W. S. Davis was in Concord and Lunenburg Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Ray Dunham is assisting in the Woolworth store.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Spaulding and Mrs. Chase and Myrtle Hovey, who have spent the winter in Southern California returned home Tuesday.

Mrs. Bennett and son, Harry Badd, who have spent the winter here leave for their home in Seattle, Wash., Wednesday.

Thomas Confield has purchased a Dodge touring car from the C. H. Goss Company.

Archie J. Vigneault from Littleton was a Sunday visitor at the home of Miss Clara Lachance.

Miss Marie Louise Bedard from Portland is spending a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Bedard.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kendall of Barnet was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. Glen Cole and Miss Katherine Cole of Hyde Park were here Tuesday.

Mrs. W. A. Martin of Lancaster, N. H., was a business visitor here Tuesday.

William McFarlin is home from Springfield, Vt., where he has been working on a contract.

Gilbert E. Woods, assistant treasurer of the Citizens bank, leaves Tuesday afternoon for a three weeks' western trip in the interests of the bank. Mr. Woods will go as far as Spokane, Wash., on the trip.

The Ladies' Social Circle of the Church of the Messiah will meet in the church parlors Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. H. A. Hadley and daughter returned Monday from a week's visit to Chicopee Falls, Springfield and Boston.

The May meeting of the St. Johnsbury Woman's Club will be held in Athenaeum hall, Monday, May 3, at three o'clock. This is the annual election of officers and all members are urged to be present. The executive board meets at 2 o'clock.

The friends of Mrs. Louise McLeod, who sailed for England last month, will be interested to learn she reached her father's home in Southampton in season to celebrate his birthday after a 11 days' passage in crossing the Atlantic.

Miss Maud Morrison was given a surprise party Friday evening at her home on Railroad street. She was presented a nice purse by her Sunday School class, Rev. A. S. Woodworth making presentation. A merry evening followed and delicious refreshments were served.

Paul D. Sherry has purchased a Ford roadster of the Corner garage.

A. W. Barney has returned from an extended business trip to Attleboro, Mass.

Ben J. Massy has gone to Hardwick to work.

Maurice Wordman and Wilbur Forbes of Lyndon were brought before the Municipal court Monday on complaint of the State's attorney, James B. Campbell for petit larceny. Both pleaded guilty and were fined $5 and costs which they paid.

Mrs. Henry Fairbanks leaves Wednesday afternoon for Boston where she will visit friends and relatives for a few days.

Charles L. Clay died at his home in Littleton on April 19, aged 75 years. After his graduation from Colby college at Waterville, Me., in 1862, was for a time principal of the St. Johnsbury high school and his first wife was a daughter of the late Henry C. Redington. Mr. Clay is well remembered by the older residents of St. Johnsbury and was actively connected with the business and educational interests of Littleton.

County Agent L. A. Wood and E. C. Chandler of Waterford returned today from Sherbrooke where they have been the past few days in the interest of the Plymouth Creamery.

will observe the 101st anniversary of American Old Fellowship in their lodge room Friday evening. The speaker of the evening is Rev. George

E. Price of Rutland and all Old Fellowship and their families are invited.

Mrs. J. M. Jencks of Sherbrooke is visiting her St. Johnsbury relatives.

At the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of the New England Order of Protection at Barnet Monday Ashley J. Goss of West Danville was elected Grand Vice-Warden and Mrs. E. E. Sargent of St. Johnsbury the Guide.

Carl Smith and daughter, Doris, of Central Street, are recovering from illnesses of grip.

Mrs. T. P. Farrell is recovering from a slight operation performed the past week at her home on Church St.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Gage who are to store Yuldo, the big benefit for Brightlook hospital, came to St. Johnsbury next Saturday to arrange for rehearsal. They are now in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elliott have moved from Pleasant street to an apartment over the St. Johnsbury Grocery Co. on Portland St.

Leaving Eastman, who has been connected with the Submarine Ship Corporation, at Newark, N. J., is now at Arlington, N. J., where he is now connected with the well-known firm of photographers, Underwood and Underwood.

Perley W. Walker has finished work at the office of the American Express Co. in Bellows Falls and has come to St. Johnsbury to take a position with the same company. Mrs. Walker will remain in Bellows Falls for the present.

Robert Wakefield left this morning for Cleveland, Ohio. He will drive home a Cadillac touring car.

Miss Edwina M. Blodgett is the guest of friends in Boston.

Mrs. Bertha L. Pratt of Burlington comes today to remain over Sunday with St. Johnsbury friends.

Dora McCallahan, the proprietor of the F. E. Harris store, has sold his recently purchased interest in the block where the store is located to Harry Blodgett. Mr. Blodgett has had his residence in the block for over 10 years.

Mrs. Virginia and Alice Maillett of Lunenburg spent Monday in town.

Fred Brown of Concord, Ethel Morse of Danville, Mrs. D. Fisher and Mrs. Dan Smith of East Concord were business visitors here Monday.

Mrs. Albert Spaulding and daughter, Miss Esther Spaulding and Mrs. A. J. Corcoran of Lyndonville spent Tuesday here with friends.

Mrs. Kate C. Morse of Littleton was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Ride a
Bicycle

There are more people riding bicycles today than ever before. For no other mode of transportation is more healthful—more convenient—more fun—more economical. To the weak it brings strength. To the tired it brings recreation. To the laborer it brings economy and independence. And to all it brings clean, invigorating exercise and a bigger love of the zest of life!

C. B. CHASE
Railroad Street